Conditions of this authority

1. Cigna is required to give written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit in a series no less than 2 calendar days before the date of the first direct debit in the series. The notice is to include the dates of the debits and the amount of each direct debit.
2. If Cigna proposes to change an amount or date of a direct debit specified on the notice, Cigna is required to give you written notice no less than 10 calendar days before the change.
3. I may ask my bank to reverse a direct debit up to 120 calendar days after the debit if:
 - I don't receive a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit from Cigna, or
 - I receive a written notice but the amount or the date of debiting is different from the amount or the date specified on the notice.
4. If the bank dishonours a direct debit but Cigna sends the direct debit again within 5 business days of the dishonour, Cigna is not required to give you a second notice of the amount and date of the direct debit.
5. All notices must be in writing, but can be delivered electronically, if I have agreed that with Cigna.
6. I can also agree with Cigna to receive a same day notice for direct debits specifically requested by me.
